

連邦政府・管轄州政府による発表（6月5日付）

【1 カナダ全般】

（5日）11時15分、トルドー首相が定例記者会見を行ったところ、要旨以下のとおり。

- 障がい者向け支援プログラムを発表（非課税の600加ドルの補助金と雇用支援）。
- 経済再開、職場復帰にともない120万人のカナダ人が収入補助金プログラム（CERB/PCU）申請を打ち切っている。同プログラム自体の終了時期については近日中に発表する。
- 昨夜の州政府との協議を受け、規制措置緩和とプロセス支援のため州に対して総額140億加ドルを交付金のかたちで支出する。

（過去のトルドー首相記者会見映像・トランスクリプト一覧） <https://pm.gc.ca/en/videos>

（連邦政府発表）

Prime Minister announces supports for Canadians with disabilities to address challenges from COVID-19

<https://pm.gc.ca/en/news/news-releases/2020/06/05/prime-minister-announces-supports-canadians-disabilities-address>

【2 ノバスコシア州】

（5日）マクニール州首相他による記者会見の要旨、以下のとおり。

- （1）Community graduation celebrations: exemption granted with a strict set of public health guidelines, effective from June 8 to June 30, 2020. All non-school based, community celebrations of graduates must be held by a recognized business, municipality or community organization (like a club, association, society, volunteer group, faith-based group), and the local municipality, police and fire departments and EHS must be informed and supportive of the planned event.
- Conditions under the exemption include:
 - attendees must arrive in a vehicle. all passengers in the vehicle must be from a single household or household bubble
 - graduates can be out of their vehicle to do things like cross a stage or take part in a parade of graduates as long as physical distance (two metres or six feet) is maintained between all graduates while they are out of their vehicle
 - organizers must communicate clearly with attendees in advance and ensure other public health protocols, like physical distancing, are followed
- Press Release: <https://novascotia.ca/news/release/?id=20200605004>
- More details: <https://novascotia.ca/coronavirus/community-celebration-graduates/>
- （2）Protests/public demonstrations: Any participants should respect social distancing guidelines and refrain from exhibiting any type of behavior that may heighten the risk of spreading COVID-19; wearing masks/face coverings is highly recommended
- （3）Long-term care facilities and visits to family/loved ones: restrictions for visiting are still in place at this time; but possible future options are being discussed and new procedures should be announced sometime next week.

【3 ニューブランズウィック州】

(4日)州政府は、キャンベルトン地区を除き、5日付で、次の再開フェーズ3(黄色)に移行。個人宅での10名以下の集まりや、50名以下の結婚式や葬式、2名までの長期介護施設居住者の訪問(屋外)の許可などが含まれる。

Revised: Province records first COVID-19 death; takes next step in recovery; one new case reported

https://www2.gnb.ca/content/gnb/en/news/news_release.2020.06.0324.html