Vaccine Received Outside Province Now Accepted for Nova Scotia Proof of Vaccination

October 4, 2021

Nova Scotians can now add COVID-19 vaccines that they received outside the province or through a workplace vaccination program to their Nova Scotia proof of vaccination.

The opportunity is available to:

- permanent residents of Nova Scotia who received one or both doses in another province, territory or country
- permanent residents who received one or both doses in a workplace vaccination program, such as members of the Canadian Armed Forces
- anyone who received at least one dose of vaccine in Nova Scotia
